1 This Society Notes:

- A number of exec roles have responsibilities under the constitution that are vague, underdefined, or unrepresentative of their roles at present.
- A prime example of this is Gaming:

4.4.4 Gaming Coordinator
4.4.4.a The Gaming Coordinator should organise all gaming-related events.

2 This Society Believes:

- That better specifying the roles of executive members will provide better guidance on what they're supposed to do.
- It also makes it easier to hold executive members to account for failing to meet the requirements of their roles.

3 This Society Resolves:

- To replace the section of executive responsibilities (previously starting "4.3 Core Officers") with the following provisions:

10.8.1 Core Officers
10.8.1.1 The Core Officer Duties shall include:
10.8.1.1.1 To attend the Society's Annual General Meeting.
10.8.1.1.2 To attend Societies Council and complete mandatory training sessions/courses.
10.8.1.2 President / ~~Chair / Club Captain /~~ Lord/Lady/Liege/etc Chancellor of the Computers
10.8.1.2.1 The President ~~should~~ will organise and oversee the running of The Society~~.~~ , in line with goals outlined within this Constitution.
10.8.1.2.2 The President will seek to guide the direction of the Society as a whole – with considerations made to the "Bigger Picture" and future of the Society.
10.8.1.2.3 The President will work alongside the Executive Committee to produce written documentation to aid future Executive Committee members where appropriate.
10.8.1.2.4 Alongside the Vice President, The President ~~should~~ will chair committee meetings.
10.8.1.2.5 The President ~~should~~ will produce an annual report.

10.8.1.2.6 ~~The Executive Committee should appoint a standing President to oversee the President's duties in the event of extended absence or resignation of the President. This position will only be held for a maximum of 10 weeks, until the next Extraordinary or Annual General Meeting.~~ See Vice President.

10.8.1.2.7 The President will work with the Welfare Officers to ensure member wellbeing both at society events and within society run channels. With such issues, the President is bound by confidentiality.

10.8.1.2.8 The President will aim to promote strong Executive Committee cohesion, individual agency and where appropriate, accountability.

10.8.1.3 Treasurer

10.8.1.3.1 The Treasurer ~~should be~~ is responsible for the finances of the Society.

10.8.1.3.2 The Treasurer ~~should~~ will maintain an up-to-date record of their group account in addition to the record kept by the SU finance office.

10.8.1.3.3 All funds ~~should~~ will be held and processed through the groups Students' Union bank account. No money should be held in personal bank accounts.

10.8.1.3.4 The Treasurer ~~should~~ will submit grant funding applications.

10.8.1.3.5 The Treasurer will, alongside the Outreach Officer, build and maintain relationships with organisations that sponsor the Society.

10.8.1.3.6 The Treasurer ~~should~~ will maintain an up-to-date annual budget for ~~each~~ all relevant areas of the Society, which must include, but is not limited to, Welfare, Gender Inclusivity, Gaming, Socials, Academics, ~~Events~~ Ball, Tech and Sports.

10.8.1.4 Welfare Officer

10.8.1.4.1 The Welfare Officer ~~should~~ will work confidentially with ~~both society members and exec~~ both exec and non-exec society members to prioritise their wellbeing and safety, be available as the first point of contact, and where appropriate, signpost to external services such as Wellbeing Services and Report & Support.
